

Sunday School returns September 8, 9:40am.

Congregational Meeting September 15, after the service

We will have a congregational meeting on Sunday, September 15 after the service to vote on our window repair project. Please make plans to attend.

Food Pantry

Many thanks to all of you for continuing to bring in items. We are grateful for your support.

Pray and Go , after the service September 22

Put on those walking shoes and join us as we pray over homes in our community.

The Gathering and St. Luke Guys September 20

The Gathering and St Luke Guys are meeting at Buckners at 11:00. They will then go to the Joyner's house for the lesson and discussion.

5th Sunday- potluck time! September 29

Each 5th Sunday, St. Luke will hold a Pot Luck after the service.

Come prepared for good food and great company!

Yard Sale and BBQ October 5,

It is time to start preparing for our annual yard sale! The yard sale will be on Saturday, October 5, from 8am till 2pm. 100% of the proceeds go to support our Thanksgiving Food Box ministry. BBQ sales benefit Hands of Hope. You may start bringing in items now! All items should be placed in the youth room in the designated areas marked by a sign. All items should be in good, working condition. Furniture, home and holiday decor, sporting goods, tools, electronics, and kitchen items are always our top sellers. DO NOT BRING: clothing, food, household/lawn chemicals, broken or soiled items, mattresses.

We need volunteers! Sign-up sheets are on the table in the narthex. Thank you!!!

Upcoming Commemorations

September 9 Peter Claver, priest, missionary to Colombia, died 1654

Born into Spanish nobility, Claver became a Jesuit missionary, and served in present-day Colombia. His ministry was focused on the enslaved people who arrived there. He gave them food and medicine, learned their dialects, and taught them Christianity.

September 13 John Chrysostom, Bishop of Constantinople, died 407

John was a priest in Antioch and an outstanding preacher. His eloquence earned him the nickname "Chrysostom" ("golden mouth"). Appointed bishop of Constantinople, seat of the empire, he criticized corruption in the court. As a result, he was exiled by the empress.

September 14 Holy Cross Day

Helena, mother of Constantine, made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and found what may be the actual site of Jesus' crucifixion. Her son built two churches there, and the dedication of one of them gave rise to this celebration of our Lord's victory on the cross.

September 16 Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, martyr, died around 258

Cyprian served as a bishop during a time of great persecution of Christians. He insisted on receiving back those who had left the faith under duress. He also provided medical care during a severe epidemic.

September 17 Hildegard, Abbess of Bingen, died 1179

A mystic who was widely influential within the church, Hildegard advised and reproved kings and popes, wrote poems and hymns, and produced treatises in medicine, theology, and natural history. She was also a musician and artist.

September 18 Dag Hammarskjöld, renewer of society, died 1961

A Swedish diplomat, Hammarskjöld served as the second Secretary General of the United Nations until his death in a plane crash while trying to negotiate peace in present-day Zambia. His journal, published as Markings, revealed the depth of his Christian faith.

September 20 Nelson Wesley Trout, bishop, died 1996 (TFF)

A native of Ohio, Trout served parishes in several parts of the United States before being elected bishop of the South Pacific District of the American Lutheran Church, the first African American Lutheran to serve in such a capacity.

September 21 Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist

Matthew (or Levi) was a tax collector in Capernaum for the Roman government. Tax collectors were frequently despised for dishonesty and for assisting the occupiers. Jesus nevertheless showed love for them, and chose Matthew to be a disciple.

September 29 Michael and All Angels

Michael the archangel, captain of the heavenly hosts, is remembered on this day along with the other angels and archangels. The word "angel" means messenger, and in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, these beings have a fully spiritual nature and no physical body.

September 30 Jerome, translator, teacher, died 420

Jerome was a biblical scholar and translator, but rather than translating the original Hebrew and Greek scriptures into classical Latin, he worked in the commonly-spoken Latin of the day, creating a version called the
